UK factories beat COVID to boost output

UK factory output grew at its fastest pace for six months in January despite the spread of Omicron amid signs the supply chain crisis has passed its peak.

The closely-watched IHS Markit/CIPS manufacturing purchasing managers' index (PMI) revealed the rate of production output ramped up for the third straight month to its highest since July 2021.

The report shows there was a welcome easing in delays and logistics troubles.

This helped see input price inflation rise at the slowest pace for nine months, though it remained at "stomach-churning" levels, according to the Chartered Institute of Procurement & Supply.

Overall expansion in the sector fell slightly last month on sluggish new orders, while exports "barely rose", says the survey.

1,600 Tesco jobs face axe

AROUND 1,600 jobs are under threat at Tesco.

Changes to overnight roles at a number of supermarkets and petrol stations will put more than 1,400 workers at risk of redundancy.

It comes after the retailer confirmed that it plans to close its Jack's discount arm, with seven stores shutting for good and the remaining six becoming Tesco shops. It said the combined changes will put around 1,600 workers at risk.

The retailer will remove overnight stocking and convert 36 petrol stations to be pay-at-pump only.

CANNABIS SENDS YOU BONKERS: OFFICIAL

Nuthouses overflowing due to drug, figures show

THE Scottish experiment to decriminalise cannabis has backfired spectacularly after it emerged that the so-called "soft" drug is sending more people than ever BONKERS.

Admissions to nuthouses among cannabis users have soared 74 per cent since the drug was effectively decriminalised in Scotland six years ago, figures show.

They rocketed from 1,191 in 2015/16 to 2,067 last year.

It comes after Scottish police changed guidance in January 2016 so those found possessing cannabis could be issued with a warning rather than face court.

The number of prosecutions halved over the period.

Last year, a record 1,263 new patients in Scotland sought hospital treatment for psychiatric disorders blamed on cannabis, including schizophrenia.

The NHS figures will add pressure on the UK Government to resist calls to decriminalise cannabis.

A previous Public Health Scotland report stated psychiatric admissions for cannabis users doubled between 2014 and 2020.

It said: "There has been a notable increase in the percentage of... stays attributed to cannabis... increasing from 9 per cent in 2014/15 to 18 per cent in 2019/20."

Research has previously shown a strong link between cannabis and mental illness.

One US study found that cannabis-linked psychosis admissions are 2.5 times higher in areas where the drug has been legalised.

Shopping bills to rise £180 a year

ANNUAL shopping bills are set to rise by around £180 on average as inflation pushes up the cost of groceries.

Analysts at Kantar said inflation in the past four weeks stands at 3.8% – a rise on levels in December – with savoury snacks, fresh beef and crisps up, while beer, bacon and vitamins fell.

The higher prices come as sales continue falling compared with a year ago when lockdown restrictions saw restaurants, pubs and non-essential retailers closed.

But there was strong growth in sales of vegan and low-alcohol products as customers embraced Dry January and Veganuary.

In the 12 weeks to January 23 overall sales fell 3.8%, although they remain 8% higher than pre-pandemic levels, Kantar said.

Kantar's Fraser McKeivitt said: "Prices are rising on many fronts, and the weekly shop is no exception."

"Supermarkets that can offer the best value stand to win the biggest slice of spend."

Britons turn down the gas

MORE than one in five Britons have cut back on energy usage ahead of a massive spike in gas and electricity prices in April.

The Office for National Statistics said that 66% of adults said their cost of living has increased in the past month, most of whom said that gas and electricity bills had contributed to the rise.

Of these, just under a third said that they were cutting back on spending on fuel such as gas and electricity.

More than half are spending less on non-essentials, while a quarter are dipping into savings.

In April, the energy price cap is expected to rise further, probably to around £1,900 a year according to experts at Cornwall Insight.

Hapless Raab defends PM's Savile fib

BORIS Johnson's rubbished claim that Sir Keir Starmer failed to prosecute Jimmy Savile was part of the "cut and thrust" of parliament, a Cabinet minister claimed.

Bungling Deputy Prime Minister Dominic Raab refused to repeat the jibe levelled at the Labour leader by Mr Johnson.

Sir Keir described the claim as a "ridiculous slur peddled by right-wing trolls" and claimed Mr Johnson had "debased" himself by saying it.

Justice Secretary Raab said he was "certainly not repeating it" during an interview, without the protection of parliamentary privilege.

But Tory former Cabinet minister Julian Smith said the Prime Minister should

By COLIN HURST
news@sundaysport.co.uk

withdraw the "false and baseless" smear.

Sir Keir was director of public prosecutions from 2008 to 2013, but is not thought to have been involved in decisions on sexual offence allegations against Savile.

In the Commons, as he defended himself on partygate, Mr Johnson claimed Sir Keir "used his time prosecuting journalists and failing to prosecute Jimmy Savile".

Mr Raab said: "This is the cut and thrust of Parliamentary debate and exchanges."

He said he couldn't stand up the claim, adding: "I'm not repeating it, I don't have the facts."

Mr Smith, a former chief whip, said: "The smear made against Keir Starmer relating to Jimmy Savile is wrong and cannot be defended. It should be withdrawn."

"False and baseless personal slurs are dangerous, corrode trust and can't just be accepted as part of the cut and thrust of parliamentary debate."

Sir Keir said: "It's a ridiculous slur peddled by right-wing trolls... this is where I saw the faces of the Conservative MPs, the disgust on their faces that their Prime Minister was debasing himself by sinking so low in the Chamber was clear.

Disgrace

"They knew that he was going so low with that slur, with that lie – he had been advised not to do it because it's not true, but he does it because he doesn't understand what honesty and integrity means."

In 2020, fact checking charity Full Fact looked into the claim that Sir Keir had stopped Savile being charged in 2009.

Full Fact said Sir Keir was head of the CPS when the decision not to prosecute Savile was made but an inquiry "did not suggest that Mr Starmer was personally involved in the decisions made".

VAL KICKS RAITH INTO TOUCH

AUTHOR Val McDermid has said she will withdraw her support and sponsorship of Raith Rovers football club after it signed David Goodwillie.

The striker (right) was ruled to be a rapist and ordered to pay damages in a civil case in 2017. He never faced a criminal trial over the rape claim after prosecutors said there was not enough evidence.

Ms McDermid, known for her popular crime fiction novels, has been a lifelong fan of the Fife club. She was the Scottish Championship team's main shirt sponsor but said that deal would now be ended as a result of the signing.

Writing on Twitter, Ms McDermid said: "The thought of the rapist David Goodwillie running out on the pitch at Starks Park in a @RaithRovers shirt with my name on it makes me feel physically sick."

She has ended sponsorship "over this disgusting and despicable move" and added that Goodwillie's presence was a "stain on the club".

Costly Bru to beat hangover

HANGOVERS in Scotland are set to cost MORE after the makers of Irn-Bru revealed they'd raised prices of the famed restorative.

Bosses at AG Barr said they have seen rising costs for raw materials, including packaging and energy bills, leading to cost-cutting measures and have "adjusted our pricing with customers where appropriate".

The comments came as the company reported that in the 12 months to the end of January sales are expected to be £267million, up 17.5% compared with the previous year and beating the pre-pandemic period, when sales hit £255.7m.

House prices rise but fall is coming

THE housing market has had its strongest start to the year since 2005.

Annual house price growth increased to 11.2% in January, up from 10.4% in December, Nationwide said.

But it said it is likely that the property market will slow this year.

Higher prices is likely to dampen market activity as people's household budgets are also squeezed by the surge in living costs, it warned.

Women fake their orgasms 'to make men feel macho'

WOMEN are still faking orgasms to make "fragile" male partners feel more like macho men.

A study collected data from over 600 women, many of whom admit ignoring their own erotic pleasure in order to placate insecure men.

"Women are prioritising what they think their partners need over their own sexual needs and satisfaction," said author Jessica Jordan, of the University of Florida.

The more women saw their partner's masculinity as precarious, the more anxiety they had.

This in turn lowered their own sexual pleasure and the rate at which they orgasmed.

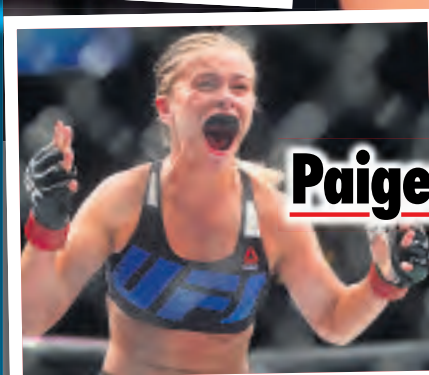

Women who assumed their partner's manhood was "fragile" were less likely to provide honest sexual communication due to "anxiety".

Anyone fancy a wrestle?

Paige gives fans a peek

PAIGE VanZant is one of the most famous fighters in the world.

And it's not just because of her fighting career, as the UFC veteran has a huge social media following, too.

This week the beauty had a real treat for fans by posting a sexy flashing video on Twitter.

Along with the video, she wrote: "Peek-a-boo."

One follower said: "Have a wrestle with her? I'd like to rub Angel Delight in her ring and lick it out!"

A JAIL got rid of its pet cockerel after inmates moaned that its CROWING was waking them up too early.

Inmates at HMP Stafford, a 700-capacity category C jail for sex offenders, repeatedly whinged that the rooster made too much of a racket at sunrise.

The birds often start crowing before dawn, and are known to begin as early as 4am in summer.

The jail – the second oldest in the UK, first opened in 1793 – is home to plush manicured gardens, and also boasts a paddock containing two pygmy goats – called Stan and Olly – several beehives, and a few hens.

A cockerel was added but it wasn't long before lags started complaining about its crowing, which can reach 90 decibels, the same volume as a lawn mower.

Hailed

After the moaning from inmates – half of which are aged 50 or over, with nine-in-ten serving sentences of at least four years – jail chiefs decided to 'get rid' of the bird.

In 2020, the goats, hens and cockerel were hailed as part of the jail's 'outside environment'.

But in the latest report from the Independent Monitoring Board, it states that that just 'two pygmy goats remained' – with the cockerel and chickens now gone.

A prisoner's partner, who was allowed to visit the jail, said the gardens were 'beautiful' – but said that the cockerel didn't last long at the prison 'for very obvious reasons'.

Writing in lags' mag Inside Time, the partner said: "The gardens were absolutely beautiful."

"They have taken in two goats and some chickens."

"The cockerel lasted one weekend, for very obvious reasons."

A prison source said jailbirds valued their 'beauty sleep' and hated getting up if they didn't have to – especially since lockdown, when they were locked in their cells for 23 hours a day.

He said: "If you're going to be in a cell for 23 hours without time out for exercise, work, education or association, you might as well sleep as long as you can."

"But if a cockerel is crowing away from the crack of dawn you're not going to get very much kip."

He added: "I'm not sure if the cockerel was fobbed off somewhere else or if he ended up in the pot – but he wasn't there long."

COPS SWAPPED SEXIST AND RACIST MESSAGES

COPS exchanged highly offensive racist, sexist and homophobic messages with claims it was "banter" used a cover for bullying and harassment, a watchdog has found.

Details of messages from WhatsApp groups and a Facebook chat group referring to rape including "I would happily rape you" were detailed in a shocking report from the Independent Office for Police Conduct into now-disbanded Metropolitan Police teams.

Homophobic

language was also used including one entry that said "fk you bender", and a number of racist messages including references to African children, Somali people and Auschwitz that are too offensive to print.

The messages were uncovered as part of nine investigations into officers based in Westminster, mostly at Charing Cross police station, that began in March 2018 after allegations that an officer had sex with a drunk person at a police station.

Bette told to kiss a dog's arse

KISS my dog's ARSE. That's the message West Virginia Governor Jim Justice had for Bette Midler (above) after the actress called his residents "poor, illiterate and strung out".

The 70-year-old Republican took aim at Midler and other haters at the end of his televised state of the state address when he held up his English bulldog and flashed its butt to the crowd.

"Babydog tells Bette Midler and all those out there: Kiss her heinie," Justice said, prompting huge applause and a standing ovation.

Justice's bold display was in response to Midler tweeting last month that the entire state of West Virginia was backwards, after Democratic Senator Joe Manchin refused to support President Biden's Build Back Better Act.

Loudmouth Midler was forced to apologise a day later "to the good people of WVA" after her comment sparked mass outrage.

Police then went to two addresses in Norborne Glebe after reports that a female resident was assaulted by an unknown male while she was sitting in her vehicle and a male, who was nude from below the waist, was ringing the doorbell of another home.

Soon after, police responded to another home in Crosswinds, where a female resident reported she was assaulted by a male as she left her vehicle.

DOPE FIEND SNIPPED OFF HIS DICK

By COLIN HURST

news@sundaysport.co.uk

A MAN cut off his own penis as he suffered a psychotic episode after smoking cannabis, a new medical case study reveals.

The 23-year-old, from Thailand, had used cannabis for two years before quitting his habit.

Three months later, he smoked two bongos (2g) of cannabis and experienced an erection two hours later, without sexual stimulation.

He reported feeling a severe, persistent and sharp pain in his penis and said his glans looked distorted.

Believing he could stop the pain, he decided to trim the penile skin several times using scissors – but then completely amputated his penis.

Contaminated

Two hours later, the bleeding had not stopped and the man, who works as a plumber, went to hospital.

Doctors believed the penis was too damaged to save and all the dead skin and flesh was removed.

The amputated part was contaminated with ants, while the remaining stump was 2cm in length.

"After admission and cannabis discontinuation, his delusion and hallucination subsided," the report says.

The research, published by The Journal of Medical Case Reports, said cannabis-induced psychosis was diagnosed because symptoms began after cannabis use, without evidence of other substance abuse.

The man's experience, which took place during lockdown, was a rare case, but cannabis does exhibit many adverse effects, including psychosis, the report added.

The research team concluded: "Cannabis-induced psychosis is an adverse effect of cannabis, which may lead to impaired judgement and unexpected self-harm."

MORE and more celebs are baring their bits and confidently sharing naked selfies on Instagram.

But what are they trying to tell us?

The most recent star to shun clothes is sexy granny Madonna, who set pulses racing by posing naked in a raunchy mirror snap.

Madge's cheeky snap comes in the wake of similar sultry pics from Britney Spears, Lottie Moss and Rita Ora.

Body language expert Judi James said: "It's as though Madonna is telling us several conflicting messages at once with this crotch-and-crutch pose," pointing out the 63-year-old superstar's "raunchy" tilted hat and "vulnerable" crutch.

She adds: "She's clearly as keen to shock as she ever was."

So why do so many celebs bare all for selfies in the mirror?

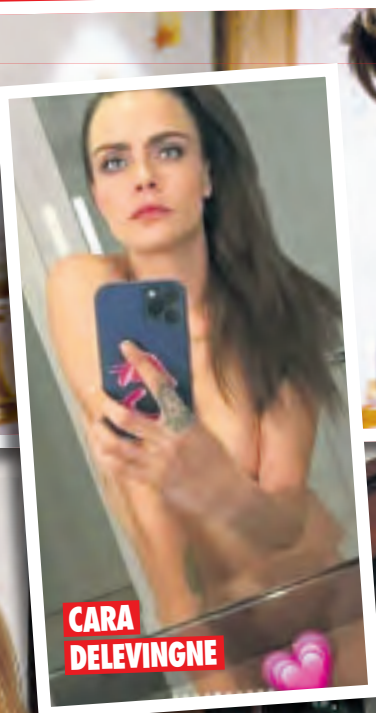

Who cares. Just enjoy the pics!

SLAUGHTER

WHEN 15-year-old Seath Jackson split up with his girlfriend, Amber Wright, he took to Facebook to voice his anger.

But what began as a social media spat with her and her new boyfriend resulted in Seath being tortured, beaten, shot, burned, dismembered and tossed into a quarry...

QUARRY HORROR:
Place where Seath's body was dumped

AFTER he was sentenced to death in December 2013, Mike Bargo told a courtroom: "I'm not crazy, I'm not a psycho, I'm not a bad person."

But, considering what he'd done, any right-minded person would struggle to agree.

When Bargo began dating 15-year-old Amber Wright in April 2011, the pair were subjected to a torrent of abuse by Wright's ex, Seath Jackson.

In a series of lurid Facebook posts, an emotional

Seath vented his anger. Not only did he accuse Wright of cheating on him with Bargo, he also tried to paint them both as drug users while goading Bargo into a physical confrontation, writing, 'LOL, he wouldn't fight me...'

What Seath didn't know was that Bargo was mentally ill and prone to extreme bouts of psychotic rage.

And he was more than ready for a fight.

When Seath began making empty threats to burn down

Wright's house, Bargo snapped.

Seath was lured to a house in Summerfield, Florida, by Wright on the premise that the two could attempt to patch things up.

Instead, Bargo, just 15 at the time, was lying in wait with a handful of accomplices.

When Seath arrived he was set upon, beaten, tortured relentlessly, shot and put in a bath.

While still alive, Bargo then broke his kneecaps and shot him three more times.

Bargo, now 21, then hogtied Seath's body, stuffed it into a sleeping bag and threw it onto a fire pit in the back yard.

Circuit Judge David Eddy, who condemned Bargo to die, said during his sentencing: "I reference my experience to note this is the most cold, calculated, premeditated case of murder I have ever seen."

Explosive

Growing up as a boy in a violent Chicago neighbourhood, Bargo had been affected deeply by an unstable family life.

His father, Michael Snr, was an alcoholic with an explosive temper, who'd throw his dinner at the wall if it wasn't to his liking.

His mother, Tracey O'Brien, was also very abusive towards her son.

By the time his parents moved to Ocala, Florida, and eventually divorced, Bargo was deeply traumatised.

To many who knew Bargo, he was nothing more than a shy, retiring 'wimp'. Close family friend Crissy Huddleson said: "We always teased Michael about being 'Daddy's little princess' because he was a wimp."

"What happened is sickening. Not just because it's so sad, but because it's so gruesome."

"A lot of young lives are ruined."

Rosemary Denham, a former youth minister who knew Bargo well, said he often complained that he heard 'voices' in his head.

He also started to act erratically.

Back in July 2010, Rosemary caught Bargo chasing her 16-year-old son around their garden with an axe while making threats to kill him and his entire family.

At first, Rosemary complained to cops and tried to take out an injunction against her son's attacker.

But when a judge refused to issue the order, Rosemary showed incredible diplomacy and instead tried to help Bargo himself.

She said: "He wanted to be taken to a health centre, to make the voices stop in his head. That's all he wanted."

"He was a child who was unloved, who just wanted someone to care about him, someone to give him attention."

Even Bargo himself recognises he was deeply unstable.

In letters written from his prison cell he describes his past, saying 'Ever since second grade, it's been fists first.

'Growing up, I saw things at the age of 13 that would give grown men nightmares. It always haunts me.'

'Gang life surrounded me. I was targeted more than once. If it wasn't for God, I'd be in a wooden box.'

'Now I'm here, fighting to stay alive while the state tries to kill me.'

Bitch

When Seath began calling out Bargo on social media, something deep within him stirred.

Seath had written about Bargo and Wright on Facebook, saying, 'Hey look yall, that faggot dude mike she is with needs 2 quit being a scared lil bitch and fight'.

Six days after that post, Seath was dead.

In a plot that was masterminded by Bargo, he and four friends – Amber Wright, Kyle Hooper, 17, Justin Soto, 21, and Charlie Ely, 19 – set to work.

On April 17, 2011, they lured 'Seath' to Ely's trailer home.

As he walked through the door, Seath was bludgeoned over the head with a large piece of wood.

Then Bargo shot Seath three times.

Mortally wounded but still alive, Seath was held down by Soto while Bargo shot him again.

Still clinging to life, Seath was dragged to a bathtub, where Bargo shattered his kneecaps with a hammer.

Then, bleeding and in agony, Bargo finally put his enemy out of his misery by shooting him several times in the head.

Seath's body was stuffed into a sleeping bag and thrown onto a raging fire in the back yard of the property.

The charred remains were then shovelled into five-gallon drums and thrown into a nearby quarry, popular with local swimmers.

The court heard how Bargo discussed the slaying with a fellow inmate, Will Fockler, at Marion County Jail shortly after being arrested.

Fockler had asked Bargo why his face was burned.

He responded, 'When I was burning that kid Seath's body, I threw a paint can in and it blew up in my face. I was just trying to make the fire hotter.'

Bargo went on to say how he'd 'hit Seath over the head with a two-by-four' and 'pulled out a gun and shot him three times while he was in the recliner'.

He also told Fockler how he'd taken a pair of pliers and pulled out Seath's teeth, one by one, after they'd failed to burn in the grim bonfire.

Buckled

When Seath didn't return home, friends and family grew worried.

By April 19, all of the suspects had been rounded up by police.

It was Amber Wright who buckled first, confessing her guilt in the slayings and then directing police forensics teams to Seath's underwater grave.

By August 2013, Wright, Hooper, Soto and Ely had been sentenced to life in prison for their roles in the crime.

But when Bargo's murder trial got started, amazingly he chose to plead not guilty.

He tried to argue that he wasn't even there at the time of Seath's slaying, suggesting he'd only arrived at the property as the gang huddled around the inferno.

But prosecutor Amy Berndt was having none of it.

She told the jurors: 'He wanted Seath alive in the bathtub, so when Seath took his last breath, the last thing he would see was the defendant standing over him.'

In December 2013, Bargo became the youngest person to ever join Florida's Death Row.

Judge Eddy added: 'The death penalty is not only justified, it is the only appropriate sentence based on the evidence and the law of the state of Florida.'

'The actions of the defendant were conscienceless and exemplified an extreme desire to inflict a high degree of pain, fear and terror in his victim.'

'May God have mercy on your soul.'

As for Seath's parents, they can't wait to see Bargo sent to Hell.

Grieving mum Sonia said: 'Mike Bargo made his choice when he took Seath's life.'

'He decided his own fate.'

ORGAN EATING CANNIBAL ESCAPES FROM THE NUTHOUSE

Loon tried to eat woman walking her dog

HUMAN FEAST: Rimbaud wanted to eat his victim

A WOMAN walking her dog had a miracle escape after she was attacked by a CANNIBAL who had escaped from an asylum for the criminally insane.

Jeremy Rimbaud, 34, beat the woman with a stick in Toulouse in southern France after breaking free from the psychiatric hospital where he has been held since 2011.

Rimbaud, a former soldier who served in Afghanistan, allegedly grabbed the woman and punched her in the back of the head.

He started twatting her with a stick before passers-by intervened and chased him off, say detectives.

Terrified

Cops believe that if nobody had intervened, Rimbaud would have feasted on her raw flesh there and then.

'She was absolutely terrified,' the police source said.

'It was only later that she was told that she had been attacked by a known cannibal.'

Rimbaud was nabbed a short time later and returned to the nuthouse.

By GRACE HOOPER
news@sundaysport.co.uk

He has been held there ever since he was given a life sentence for murdering 90-year-old Leopold Pedebidou in nearby Noulhan in November 2011.

Authorities said Rimbaud had cut out the victim's tongue and heart after killing him — and then ate the body parts with white beans. It's believed he was inspired by the fictional cannibal Hannibal Lecter who ate a victim's liver with 'fava beans and a nice Chianti'.

Rimbaud, who was busted when he tried to kill a second farmer, has schizophrenia and PTSD.

WHAT'S ANNOYING HIM THIS WEEK?

Eur all just bitter!

EURO STAR:
Boris delivered on Brexit

IT'S getting tiresome now, isn't it?

For what seems like months, we have had to re-endure a monolithic battle we all thought was over.

On the surface it's about corruption and wine parties at the highest levels of government.

But that's bollocks.

The truth is, we're back to Brexit all over again.

Sky and BBC News absolutely detest Boris Johnson for Brexit.

It seeps from their every pore and makes their previous hatred for Nigel Farage look like a mild spat in the sandpit.

And it's same with the vast majority of people wrongly called "civil" servants across Whitehall who think the European Union is a lustroously trimmed fanny on stilts, too.

Boris could walk on water, cure cancer, or turn wall paint into gold, and it wouldn't make a difference.

Hives

He got us out of their beloved supranational, anti-democratic EU and they ain't going to stop screaming about it until they're dead.

The Beeb and Sky have stretched every sinew of their beings and budgets to get the referendum result scrapped.

Sky's Beth "Beff" Rigby and Sam Coates' eyes bulge from their heads whenever the B word comes up.

It's just the same over at Broadcasting House, where just the idea of Brexit brought them all out in hives.

When it finally happened, they needed smelling salts just to garner enough vim to visit the toilet and have done ever since, sobbing as they go.

And they were aided and abetted by all the usual suspects – starting off with that ragtag bunch in the bitter, losing, talent-free Labour Party...

The wet Tory backbenchers who desperately want their directorships on the boards of mainland Europe's boardrooms restored...

The frankly mad, like that idiot who squawks outside the Palace of Westminster every day with his top hat and megaphone...

Along with that equally oddest of oddballs, Gina Miller, who is still pretending she never wanted to overturn Brexit while doing literally everything she could to do just that.

None of these people could care less about how much a roll of Carrie Johnson's favourite wallpaper costs.

They don't give a monkey's about who did or who didn't have a glass of wine in the No 10 garden during lockdown.

They don't care if COVID-19 came from a Chinese lab or a disgusting wet market.

Nor are they remotely bothered about what Vladimir Putin intends to do or not do with Ukraine.

Energy bills? Why would MPs care when we pay their sodding household bills anyway through their "expenses".

No. It's all about Brexit. These so-called democrats STILL can't accept the democratic outcome of the biggest democratic vote that has ever taken place in this country.

A poll they LOST by nearly 1.5 million votes.

"But," they bleat, "we're the clever ones. Everyone else was lied to."

Good grief. Give it up, for fk's sake.

We're simply not going back into the Brussels' Death Star in any of our lifetimes.

For what it's worth, though, I think Boris has been a complete and utter c-struck dickhead.

But that's still only about 10% of how badly Jeremy Corbyn would have done things instead.

I used to think strip clubs were only for blokes, with nude ladies helping them to spend their money.

But then I went to one with my boyfriend and it was incredibly hot, and so much fun!

I can get jealous over my man as much as the next girl, but this night I'd had a couple of drinks and was feeling adventurous.

When we walked in the strippers were so friendly to me. I totally loosened up.

These gorgeous girls with killer curves showed off their athletic skills on the poles. It was mesmerising.

With the banging tunes playing in the dimly-lit club it was a very sexy ambience.

It was a bit sleazy, but thrilling at the same time.

Two stunnas gave us twin lap dances, and I got a real buzz from us both getting turned on.

And I learned a load of new tricks to try out in the bedroom later!

The strip club lowered my inhibitions and brought out the real sex kitten in me.

Afterwards, we went home and had the best sex of our lives. I was ace!

SpaceX flight winner: I was too fat to go

THE mystery winner of a seat aboard a SpaceX flight said he gifted the prize to his friend after the company determined that he exceeded the weight limit.

Kyle Hippchen, 43, is still struggling with the disappointment of learning he could not claim his seat on the September space flight because he weighs 330 pounds, above the 250-pound weight limit for the voyage.

"It hurts too much," he said. "I'm insanely disappointed, but it is what it is."

Hippchen (above), a Florida-based captain for Delta's regional carrier Endeavor Air, bought $600-worth of sweepstakes entries and won the chance to orbit Earth.

"I was trying to figure how I could drop 80 pounds in six months which, I mean, it's possible, but it's not the most healthy thing in the world to do," Hippchen said.

The flight's sponsor, Shift4 Payments founder and CEO Jared Isaacman, allowed Hippchen to choose a stand-in.

DING DANG DO!

Christine McGuinness sent fans into a spunk-splattered frenzy when she posted a sexy video on Instagram.

The 33-year-old beauty danced about in her drawers during the clip, with her big titties busting out of her bra.

One fan said: "I'd love a go on that. Bet her nipsy's real clean!"

A GIRLS' basketball and softball coach is accused of having sex with a 17-year-old student and destroying evidence.

Ashley Ra-Nae Rison is charged with eight counts of sexual battery and one charge each of tampering with evidence and furnishing alcohol to an underage person.

Rison, 30, of Hamilton, Ohio, was booked into the county jail.

"It's a serious case," Butler County Prosecutor Mike Gmoser said.

"We take these cases very seriously."

According to the indictment, Rison engaged in sexual conduct with the student eight times in April 2021.

She is also accused of supplying the student with alcohol in March 2021 and tampering with evidence in May 2021 to impede an investigation.

Dildo

It's believed Rison parted the girl's coltish legs and plunged her hot tongue into the teen's shy intimacy.

On another occasion, she persuaded the girl to succumb to penetration with a dildo.

It's believed that the girl also buried her face in Rison's musky lesbian vagina and licked the older woman to gushing climax.

She quit her job at New Miami on May 3, 2021, the same day the alleged crimes were reported to the Butler County Sheriff's Office.

New Miami Board of Education said Rison coached girls softball and basketball.

They said she began working for the district in August 2015.

In addition, the sheriff's office said she was a teacher's aide at New Miami.

"Ashley Ra-Nae Rison is no longer employed by the New Miami Local School Board. Effective May 3, 2021, Ms. Rison resigned her position as paraprofessional and coach," Superintendent Rhonda Parker said in a statement.

Gmoser declined to discuss details of the case but said there was only one victim and "we are not alleging a rape by force".

The Butler County Sheriff's Office said there are no other known victims.

"We trust the teachers to protect our children, not violate them," Sheriff Richard Jones said.

THE WORLD FAMOUS AGONY

Dear Ava,

I WENT to a family wedding at a smart hotel with my missus and after the ceremony I headed for the bar and got stuck into the ale.

We were staying over and there was the evening "do" to come, so after a few beers I went for a lie down in our room.

I was dozing in just my boxers when a hand reached into my shorts, sending my cock skywards. And when I opened one eye, it was my wife's sister!

She started to tease my todger with her tongue and gave me a great a blowjob.

We made eye contact at the evening reception but nothing was said. What was all that about?

LG, Devon

Ava says...

BEST to keep it a secret, I reckon.

Dear Ava,

AS a plumber who is a regular at my local church, it wasn't unusual to get a call from our vicar's daughter to look at a problem at the vicarage.

It was only a small job and afterwards she took me to the huge kitchen for a cup of coffee.

I noticed that she had quite a short skirt on and was showing a lot of leg, and as we chatted she showed more and more!

Soon I could clearly see her pussy on either side of her white lacy panties and I visibly stirred.

She began caressing my swollen cock. I pulled it out and pressed it up against her wet pussy-lips and pushed until I was bollocks deep.

Then I gave her the shag of her life. I've seen her since, but she never lets on.

MO, Somerset

Ava says...

PERHAPS you should offer to check her pipes!

Sex with missus and nanny is exhausting!

Dear Ava,

MY wife and I both work full-time, so a few months ago we took on a nanny to help at home.

She's a busty Australian and it wasn't long before we started shagging.

I was off work one day and saw her stood in her room starkers. She beckoned me in and we were immediately kissing and groping each other as she ripped my clothes off.

I lay her on the bed and licked her pussy, then she got down on her knees and sucked me off.

We had the most amazing sex and we have been doing so for more than a few weeks.

My wife doesn't suspect a thing, but the hired help keeps playing footsie with me under the table at shared meal times.

I'm infatuated with her and I've been taking a lot of time off work – just to bonk her.

I've also been having sex with my wife in between, to keep her happy, but it's exhausting.

I'm worried I'll lose them both – and my job – as I keep dozing at my desk.

What should I do?

PR, south London

Ava says...

YOU can't really want sympathy!

AGONY IS BROUGHT TO YOU IN ASSOCIATION

WELCOME to the World famous Sport Agony page! No other newspaper's agony aunts can offer the level of advice – or experience – than our own Agony Angels! This week AVA DALUSH has been reading through your letters. And here's her advice for you...

Horny shop blonde blamed me for sack

Dear Ava,

WHEN me and my mates arranged to go on the pull, I went into town to buy some new dobber.

I went to a really cool men's clothing shop down a side street, hoping to get some nice designer jeans and a fitted shirt.

The other reason I paid it a visit is that there are always two or three fit birds working there.

It was quiet and when I went inside I was the only customer.

I was checking out this wicked pair of jeans when one of the girls – a blonde with big tits who always wears low-cut tops and short skirts – came over for a chat.

Sucking

I told her she looked nice, let her know where I'd be that night and said I'd buy her a drink if she came out.

She told me the other shop girl had gone out for lunch for an hour and the boss was on holiday.

She said the jeans would really suit me, asked if I wanted to try them on and gave me a filthy wink.

I went in the cubicle and put the jeans on. The dirty cow was locking the door and, after putting up the closed sign, she came into the cubicle and started snogging me.

I pulled down her top, got her big lovely tits out and started sucking them before she pulled down the new jeans and started giving me the best blowjob I've ever had.

She'd definitely done it before and teased my bellend with her tongue before taking my length deep in her throat.

Suddenly she stopped, pulled her thong to one side and pushed my cock into her moist shaven pussy.

I was doing her up against the wall and was about to blow my load when we heard a loud knocking on the front door of the shop.

"Fk!" she said, and she quickly got dressed and went back into the shop while I finished myself off.

But whoever had been knocking on the door had gone away.

Sadly, the blonde decided to keep the shop open – so that was the end of our bit of afternoon delight.

However, she came to meet me at a bar later that night and after a few drinks we went back to her place and finished what we had started earlier in the day.

The problem is, she rang me the following week to say she had been sacked – and she blames me!

Apparently, her boss had come back from his holidays early and it was him who had found the shop closed when it should have been open.

To make matters worse, in all the rush I forgot to buy the jeans and her boss found them on the changing room floor with a massive wad of spunk on the leg – so he sacked her! Is it really all my fault?

HM, Manchester

Ava says...

NO. She knew the risk she was taking. I'm sure she will get another job soon.

Dear Ava,

OUR neighbours asked us to keep an eye on their house – and their 18-year-old son – while they were away on holiday.

My husband works nights and one evening, bored of channel-hopping, I put on one of my husband's porn DVDs.

I was fking myself with a dildo when I heard a noise outside.

It was the neighbours' son, who was pissed and he'd lost his key.

I went out and told him he could stay at ours and my husband would help him in the morning.

I told him to go in the lounge while I grabbed some drinks, but my heart sank when I realised I'd left the blue film running and the dildo on the sofa!

I gingerly peeped round the door and saw he was sitting there watching the porno with a thick nine-inch sticking out of his files as he wanked himself off.

I came in the room and grabbed his cock, gave it a long hard suck and straddled him.

He started pumping furiously until we came to a simultaneous climax.

I asked him to keep quiet but he must have told his friends, as a few have been to see me for sex.

What should I do?

RG, Birmingham

Ava says...

TELL them to fk off.

Wife prefers huge sex toy to my cock

Dear Ava,

MY wife went to one of those sex toy parties where she spent £150 on sexy undies and bedroom gadgets.

When she got home she pulled a huge black vibrator out of her bag and led me to our bedroom, where she stripped off and began to demonstrate what the toy was capable of.

I sat amazed as she spread her thighs, flicked her love-bean for a minute to get her juices flowing and then eased the full length of the whirling machine deep inside her sopping wet hole.

After she brought herself to a climax, she laughingly tossed the sex toy over to me and invited me to have a go with it on her.

Shuddered

So I took hold of it and slipped it back into her as she lay open-legged on the bed.

She ordered me to bang it into her, faster and faster, until she shuddered and a huge orgasm rippled through her, while I lay back sweaty and knackered on the bed.

This has happened every night since and now she won't entertain having my own decent-sized cock inside her.

This is getting really frustrating. What should I do?

TL, Essex

#HOT'N

marie LAMBO

N' HORNY

GLAMOUR girl Marie Lambo loves posing TOPLESS. But she much prefers kinkier photo shoots.

Marie, from Prague, Czech Republic, said she loves to strip naked for the camera.

And if she's feeling really horny, she said the photographer might catch a glimpse of some of the 32DD babe's 'extras'.

She said: "I like to be as naked as possible. I get booked for a topless shoot but I want to pull down my panties and put my fingers in my pussy."

"Sorry, but that's just the way I am."

"Getting naked makes me so horny - on the bus on the way home there is always a huge wet patch in my little panties!"

"You will not believe how hot I get during sexy photo shoots!"

SPECIAL OFFER: ANY 3 PRIVATE SHOPS DVDs FOR £25 (was £75)

IT'S finally time to say goodbye to the creepy Crawleys of Downton Abbey and hello to the horny hotties of buxom Bottomley Manor!

For all you red-blooded fellas who love your porn but are bored to tears by dull Downton Abbey this is your lucky day.

Released last week, the UK's most highly anticipated adult movie is available exclusively through the Sport's adult partner Private Shops and, for a limited time they're offering readers another £5 OFF the already low, low price.

Down On Abby is a big budget, full length adult masterpiece starring porn legend Ben Dover and a cast of the hottest adult stars around. It will transport you to Bottomley Manor, home to the Lord Grabhem (played by Ben Dover), his wife (and 2014 AVN nominee) Jasmine Jae, and their two young promiscuous step-daughters, Abby and Fanny.

The Grabhems have invited the Stiffies to dinner and their staff, led by butler Small and footman Master Bates, hurriedly prepare to receive their honoured guests.

But during preparations some members of staff have their own ideas of how to make the night go with a bang! As dinner approaches it seems everyone's got more than fancy nosh on their minds. Mind you, there is plenty of noshing as well as lots of other filth that will even cause a crease in Carson's keks.

We see plenty of R18 DVDs at the Sport but this one is really something special and one you MUST not miss!

This future classic stars Ava Dalush as Missy, Cathy Heaven as Lucy, Emma Leigh as Betty, Jasmine Jae as Lady Wanda Grabhem, Jasmine James as Fanny Grabhem, Jess West as Lady Stiffie, Lexi Lowe as Abby Grabhem, Ben Dover as Lord Will Grabhem, Big Bad Dave as Smithers and Clarke Kent as Master Bates.

Rangers will have to wait for Ram raid

By JOHN ANTHONY

AARON Ramsey has warned Rangers fans to be patient while he gets back to full fitness.

The Glasgow giants pulled off a real coup in signing the former Arsenal midfielder from Juventus on loan until the end of the season.

The 31-year-old is keen to get going but admits tonight's Old Firm clash may come too soon.

The Wales skipper said: "I'm probably going to be a little bit short for the Old Firm game but hopefully I can get myself ready this week and look forward to getting ready for the weekend, really."

"I've had these conversations with the manager and the staff and hopefully we can get a plan in place to get going and back up to match fitness as soon as possible."

"Rangers is a massive club, huge around the world."

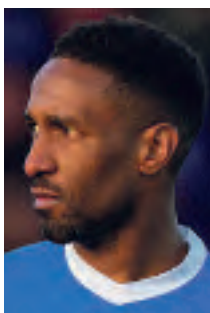

"For me to the opportunity to come here and play for this great club, for the manager, the way he wants to play..."

Excited

"It's a possession-based team that plays the way I like to play as well. There are many benefits to being here, in European football and to experience a couple of the Old Firm games as well."

"I'm just excited to be here and be a part of that really."

"I just want to get back to playing and showing what I can do again. It's a great opportunity here for me to do that. The last couple of years have been a bit difficult at times but for me now it's about looking forward, pulling on that blue jersey and hopefully showing what I can do."

Ramsey says Rangers boss Giovanni Van Bronckhorst – who let Jermain Defoe sign for Sunderland on deadline day – was a big draw.

He added: "I was very impressed by the way the meetings went and I'm very excited to be a part of the philosophy he wants to bring – and has – at this football club."

"It's a good match. Hopefully we can work well together and have many successful times."

"I know there are many challenges here. There is a lot of pressure on us to get results."

"I'm just excited to experience it, to try and help the team and help the fans have something to celebrate."

BIG CHANCE:
Alli can make an impact under Lampard at Goodison Park

ALLI GETS LIT UP BY LAMPS

Dele can get his career on track at Everton

By PAUL THOMAS

DELE Alli says he's excited to sign for Everton.

The England midfielder has ended his Tottenham nightmare by heading north in a deadline-day move.

Alli seems to have been around for a long time but is still only 25 and could have a lot to offer the Toffees.

He has been frozen out by the last three Spurs bosses and is happy to have been rescued by new Everton gaffer Frank Lampard.

The Toffees will pay nothing this season, coughing up £10m when Alli makes 20 appearances and they could end up shelling out £40m in total should other targets be met.

He has signed a deal until 2025 and just wants to get his career back on the right track.

Alli said: "I'm very excited. It has been a long day but we got there in the end and I'm delighted."

He is signing for a boss in Lampard who knows what it takes to be an attacking midfielder.

And Alli hopes he can help bring him back to his best form.

He added: "I've had a few good conversations with the manager already."

"He is a player I admired my whole career and to have the opportunity to work with him is exciting."

"I'm sure we're going to do great things together."

"I just want to be happy playing football."

"Working with Lampard and all the great players they've got there, I think it's a great opportunity for me to do that and I'm excited to go there and show the fans what I can do and help the club as much as I can."

It ended up being a busy deadline day for Everton as they got a loan deal for Donny van de Beek over the line.

It looked as though the Manchester United bench warmer was heading south to Crystal Palace.

But Lampard swooped to keep him in the north-west.

The Dutchman has signed a loan deal until the end of the season.

He wants to get back into the swing of the Premier League and hopes he can learn from Lampard.

Van De Beek said: "I had a really positive meeting with the new coach. We have the same ideas about football and he had a lot of influence on my decision."

"I played against him when I was at Ajax, and he was at Chelsea as manager, so he knows me as a player. He thinks I have qualities that can help the team."

"I can learn a lot from him because he was in the same position – a midfield player who scored a lot of goals."

"He can help me a lot, so I think I'm in a good spot. I want to improve with Everton. There are always things that can be better and I work hard every day to do that."

The 24-year-old added: "I want to show my qualities, my strengths, to the people in England – but especially the fans from Everton."

"I hope to bring my football qualities, my passing, and, of course, scoring goals."

GEORDIE DELIGHTED TO BE GOING HOME

Dan: I'm ready to Burn it up at St James's

HOWAY THE LAD: Burn is thrilled to sign for his boyhood club

By MARK NAYLOR

GEORDIE Dan Burn says it's a dream come true to sign for Newcastle.

Eyebrows were raised when the big defender swapped the safety of Brighton for a relegation battle at St James's Park.

But it took all of two seconds for the 29-year-old from Blyth to make up his mind about returning to the north-east.

Burn started as his home town club before moving to Darlington as he worked his way up the divisions to Brighton in 2018.

He can't wait to pull on a black and white shirt after the £13m switch.

Crazy

Burn said: "I'm buzzing to be here. I never thought I'd be in this position to be a Newcastle player and to be around St James's Park, it's something I've dreamt of since I was a kid."

"I can't wait to step out in the shirt and to see what it feels like."

"From sitting in the East Stand as a kid to now, it's crazy. I'm excited to get started at Newcastle."

There were no hard feelings from Brighton with the club's official Twitter account sending a positive message: "Smash it at your boyhood club, Dan!"

DREAM COME TRUE FOR STOPPER

Wishing you all the best for the future."

It turned out to be a busy deadline day for Newcastle boss Eddie Howe who is thrilled to get the Burn deal done in time.

He said: "I'm delighted to bring Dan back to the North East. He knows exactly what it means to represent this club and he will be a big presence for us on and off the pitch."

"We have been very keen to add competition defensively and Dan fits the profile we have been looking for. He is naturally left-footed, which provides further balance to our backline, and he will be a great addition to the group."

The Toon also brought in Aston Villa left-back Matt Targett on loan.

The 26-year-old has joined until the end of the season.

He said: "I'm delighted to be here. I can't wait to get going and meet all the fans and hopefully we can have a successful end to the season."

"My family have a lot of friends here and they've always said it's a football-mad city, so to experience it and be part of it – I'm really looking forward to it."

Howe added: "We have gone into this transfer window with a plan to add strong competition in specific areas of the team and Matt will be a fantastic option for us on the left."

"He has important Premier League experience and know-how at this level, so I'm really pleased we've been able to add him to the squad."

Numbers

The headline signing for the Toon was Brazil international midfielder Bruno Guimaraes.

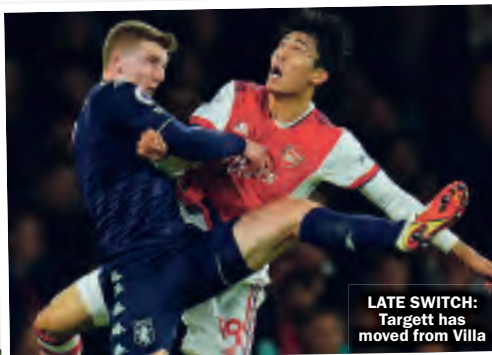

Newcastle forked out £35m to Lyon, pipping Arsenal.

Guimaraes had the pick of shirt numbers when arriving at St James's Park.

But he's chosen 39 which is the number of the taxi his dad drives back home in Rio.

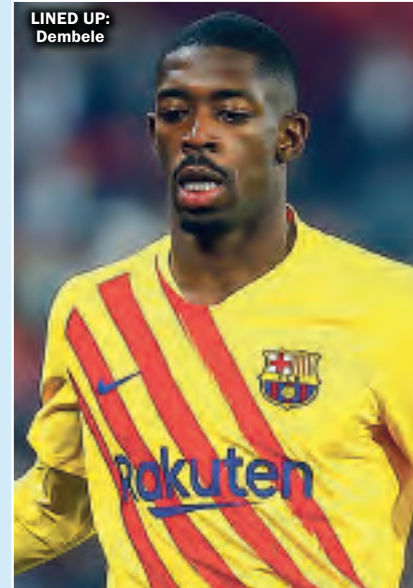

Howe said: "Bruno is a hugely exciting talent and has been one of our primary targets so I'm delighted to secure him."

"He has been one of the standout performers in France and is an international for Brazil so I have no doubt our supporters will really enjoy watching him."

LATE SWITCH: Targett has moved from Villa

LINED UP: Dembele

DEMBELE ON MOVE AFTER HIS BLUES SNUB

By ANDY MILLOM

BARCELONA president Joan Laporta says Ousmane Dembele has "signed" for a new club despite rejecting a move to Chelsea on deadline day.

The French winger was a late target for Blues boss Thomas Tuchel but the move fell through in the final hours of the window.

Dembele is refusing to sign a new contract at the Nou Camp and will leave as a free agent at the end of the season.

With no fee involved, he is likely to command a much bigger signing-on fee and wages than he would with a transfer now.

Laporta says he's baffled with Dembele's attitude in the past few days and thinks he has lined up a new team – although nothing has been said officially.

The Barca president said: "The Dembele thing is difficult to understand."

Outcast

"Dembele is in the team and Xavi has to build a competitive squad with players who have a future at this club."

"We think that Dembele already has a contract with another club, they have insinuated that to us. What we will do is defend the interests of our club."

Barcelona clearly thought Dembele was on his way as they brought in Adama Traore from Wolves and Arsenal outcast Pierre-Emerick Aubameyang.

It looked as though Dembele would sign for Chelsea on Monday night with both clubs willing to push the deal through before the window closed.

But the Frenchman is still at Barca and will surely now be frozen out by manager Xavi.

Laporte added: "I am very surprised that he did not accept a proposal he had from an English club.

SNUBBED: Tuchel

"He did not want it. It didn't make sense because it was good for him and for the club."

"It would have allowed us to work with greater peace of mind in the market."

We made him a very good renewal offer. The player said no.

"First alleging that it was not a money issue, but then he did focus on the economic aspect."

"That was when the issue became stuck. The agent didn't tell us anything and that had consequences for the club."

IT'S GOOD TO BE BACK

Eriksen can't wait for Brentford debut

CHRISTIAN Eriksen hopes to make his amazing comeback to football for Brentford within days.

The great Dane collapsed on the pitch during Euro 2020 with a cardiac arrest.

He has now made a full recovery and had an internal heart-starter fitted should it ever happen again.

By JOHN ANTHONY

Eriksen was at Inter Milan but rules in Italian football don't allow players to have defibrillators fitted.

Brentford stepped in and have signed the 29-year-old until the end of the season. If he is anything like the player who pulled on a Spurs and Inter shirt, he will be a massive asset for the Bees.

Eriksen said to his new club's fans: "I can't wait to get started. I will see you all very soon."

Brentford boss Thomas Frank coached Eriksen when he was in charge of Denmark's youth side.

He said: "We have taken the opportunity to bring a world-class player to Brentford.

"He hasn't trained with a team for seven months but has done a lot of work on his own.

"He is fit but we will need to get him match fit and I am looking forward to seeing him work with the players and staff to get back to his highest level."
